

NATURAL DISASTERS

Disease outbreak , waterpolution, armed conflict, drought, landslide, earthquake, tsunami, locusts, ice storm, flood, cyclone, tornado, hurricane.

The local water supply becomes contaminated with bacteria, causing epidemics of diarrhea and cholera. _____

A local industry dumps toxic chemicals into the bay. _____

A rebel group puts landmines on the road to and from the community, and the farmland around it _____

Rain doesn't fall for a long time. _____

Swarms of grasshoppers descend, eating every bit of vegetation in sight.

A large destructive sea wave is generated by an earthquake or volcanic eruption. _____

Extraordinary weather conditions cause huge amounts of ice to form on everything, cutting off power, freezing water pipes, and causing road accidents.

Masses of rock and earth slip down the mountain side brought on by heavy rains. _____

Violent shaking is caused by earth tremors. _____

Damaging winds reach 125km/hour accompanied by thunder, lightning and heavy rains and sea swells. _____

A destructive, violent, whirling wind is accompanied by a funnel-shaped cloud. The wind speed at the vortex is close to 200km/hour. _____

Rotating winds bring a violent storm and heavy rainfall. _____

Due to heavy rains, the local river rises, flooding out all the buildings. Water has risen almost over the treetops. _____